

Chief of Staff

Brigadier General Andrew Priddy

Brigadier General Andrew Priddy assumed duties as the Chief of Staff, Naval Striking and Support Forces NATO in May 2024. His previous assignment was Commanding General of 2d Marine Expeditionary Brigade (MEB) and the Deputy Commanding General of II Marine Expeditionary Force (MEF).

Brigadier General Priddy was commissioned in 1995. A career infantry officer he has served in 2d Battalion, 4th Marines; 3d Battalion, 3d Marines; commanding officer of 2d Battalion, 1st Marines; Deputy CJ3 for Combined Joint Task Force Operation INHERENT RESOLVE; and the commanding officer of the 13th Marine Expeditionary Unit. He has multiple MEU deployments and tours to the Middle East and Europe.

His staff assignments include Military Assistant to the Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps; Senior Aide to the Commandant of the Marine Corps; Planner and Aide-de-Camp to the Commander U.S. Special Operations Command; and Staff Platoon Commander, The Basic School.

Operations Officer and Parade Commander, Marine Barracks Washington D.C.;

Brigadier General Priddy graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy with a B.S. in Ocean Engineering in 1995. He is a graduate of the Amphibious Warfare School, the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, the Joint Force Staff College, and the U.S. Naval War College. He served as the Commandant's Fellow to the Center for Strategic and International Studies and has master's degrees from the College of Naval Warfare and the George Washington University.